What specifically is the goal that we are trying to accomplish on January 6th?

posted 2 minutes ago by TutTutTutter +2 / -0

Hear me out, I'm not dooming or saying anything really. I'm simply wondering if you have a cohesive goal.

If it ends up being a bunch of disparate efforts, this could turn into a mixed bag of peaceful protests, Alex Jones bullhorn speeches, and isolated outbreaks of violence from the brasher members of Trumps base.

That could mean January 6th becomes too peaceful to make any difference or scare anyone, with enough violence but in small enough quantities to give the MSM ammunition to fear monger, while not being enough to actually scare Congress.

Will people be bringing their guns? Highly illegal (while Constitutional) acts such as these must be done in massive groups in order to avoid lone actors getting arrested.

Will people bring literal pitchforks and torches? Imo that's almost a better image.

Where will the targets of protest be?

The buildings of Congress where the votes are being held? Is the march intended to keep those legislators from leaving the building?

But most importantly, when a thin blue line stands between them their goal, will the thin blue line stop the protesters in their tracks like last time, or will they be given a warning, and then charged right through shortly after?

Disclaimer: I AM NOT SUGGESTING ANY OF THESE ACTION. I AM SIMPLY POSING QUESTIONS.
